This Week's Sentence Sermon

Let us give thanks to God upon Thanksgiving Day. Nature is beautiful and fellowmen are dear, and duty is close beside us, and God is over us and in us. We want to trust Him with a fuller trust, and so at last to come to that high life where we shall "be careful for nothing, but in everything, by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let our request be made known unto God"; for that, and that alone, is peace.—Phillips Brooks.

Today Is Thanksgiving

For the festival of Thanksgiving today, though an American institution and a matter of proclamation on the part of the administration, is a thing that goes deeper than its national significance, and finds its firm root, not merely in the affections and the customs of one people, but in that potent imagination everywhere that speaks the aspirations of mankind, and voices in no vague tones the triumph of common humanity.

To us individually, Thanksgiving signifies a reunion of kinsfolk under the natal roof, at the hearthstone, which is the heartstone, and this reunion is for a joyous discussion of especially good cheer and a gentle re-welding of the old association of consanguinity. But to us collectively as a people, Thanksgiving means more. It stands today for what it stood in that almost primordial wilderness when the forlornly brave little band which came over on the Mayflower celebrated their gratitude to Him who had preserved them from the perils of the deep; when they performed the rites of hospitality to the savages whose minds had been inclined toward them in kindness; and when, furthermore, they gave shape and example to that spirit of co-operation and fraternal love which was destined to ripen in the following century into a republic broad-based on the rights of every man.

Let us give Thanks.

Lets Take It Easy

There is something about the sounding of a fire alarm which gets us all. When it goes off we all revert to our childhood and tear out behind the fire truck to the fire. The only difference in "now and then" is in our means of getting there. When children, we had to go on foot, running every step of the way. Now we get in our new, high-powered and fast automobiles and roar off behind the fire truck, and sometimes ahead of it. We forget all city ordinances and state speed laws in our anxiety to arrive at the fire before it is put out.

Now, in all seriousness, is there any need for us to be at the fire? Our presence there is of no help to the firemen, and oftentimes may prove a hindrance. If it is our home, we will learn of it soon enough, and even then there is nothing we could do about it. Is there any reason for our completely ignoring all laws governing traffic just because the fire alarm has been sounded and there is a fire in town? We fail to see it.

We are of the opinion that there is an ordinance requiring every car driver on the streets to pull over to the curb and stop wherever he finds himself at the time the alarm is sounded. This assures the fire truck and members of the fire department a clear right-of-way in every direction.

In the last few weeks the alarm has been sounded several times. We watch drivers "take off" without regard to traffic rules and regulations. If we must go to a fire, let's take it easy.

Our being there a few minutes early won't make it any easier on the firemen, and if we get there late we can't be blamed if the fire completely destroys whatever is burning.

So let's take it easy when the alarm is sounded. We may save a life or we may prevent an auto crash.

The Editor's Uneasy Chair

THE ALMANAC SAYS THE WEATHER.

Today, Thursday, November 23, will be cooler (THANKSGIVING).
Friday, November 24, will be snow.
Saturday, November 25, will be rain.
Sunday, November 26, (FULL MOON).
Monday, November 27, Unsettled.
Tuesday, November 28, Snow.
Wednesday, November 29, Unsettled.
BUT DON'T BLAME US IF THE ALMANAC IS WRONG!

STATESBORO AND Bulloch county really are in for a month of politics. Seven candidates in the city council race, and twenty-one candidates (Friday, November 17) for the county primary on December 19.

SEVERAL OF THE races are waxing hot and furious. It is quite different from the one four years ago when five candidates ran without any opposition. In February, 1936, none of the following had any opposition: J. E. McCroon, for ordinary; F. I. Williams, for clerk; F. W. Hodges, for chairman of the board of county commissioners; H. P. Womack, for county school superintendent; and W. W. DeLoach, for tax collector. It must be a great feeling to know that you are running a race for public office without opposition.

FROM THE LYNDON (Kansas) Herald.—"It is just too bad that an 'I' slipped over into the 'd' channel on the linotype machine while Editor Runyan was setting type for the church news last week. It was especially bad because Editor Runyan is new in town. Don't know whether Mr. Runyan hastily took a trip or holed up in the cyclone cellar, but we hasten to assure the good people of Quenemo that he did not mean it. It was 'just one of those things.' What the darned linotype made his Quenemo News say was, that 'a Sunday school board meeting was held at the home of Rev. and Mrs. King.'"

DID YOU KNOW that carbon monoxide can enter a car in several ways while driving? It may come through the floor from a leak in the exhaust line or from a faulty muffler or it may enter the windows from a truck or bus ahead if the distance is too short. Sitting in a stationary car with the windows closed and the motor running is a dangerous practice. Many couples have been found dead under such circumstances. It only takes a few minutes in a closed garage to raise the monoxide content from a running motor to a point where it will kill without warning.

FACTS AND FIGURES with which to make conversation—There are over 9,300,000 miles of highways in the world. In America there are 3,900,000. . . . The estimated money cost of World War 1 to the United States government to June 30, 1934, was $41,765,000,000. . . . Georgia is known both as the "Cracker State" and the "Buzzer State". . . . The Bible contains the best literature in the world.

Barbs Of The Briar Patch Philosopher . . .

Dear Editor:

It looks like I just couldn't get time to write you this week. Ma has had me busy killing a pig and getting the turkey ready for Thanksgiving. We been finishing up grinding our cane and it has took up all my time. I could have wrote it at night, but when I come in from feeding up I was plumb wore out and good for nothing but to go to bed.

Ma is expecting a bunch of folks 'or dinner with us Thursday. She has been a bawking and a cooking for a week.

It looked like Sunday we were going to get some rain. But now it don't look much like it. I do hope that it will rain some more. We can't do nothing until it does.

Well, it won't be long before the candidates will be in the home stretch. There are some good men a running and that's a good sign. But they can't all win, reckon they are reconciled to that by now.

If you can come out and eat with us Thanks-giving, there will be plenty for all.

I'll do better next week, maybe.

Fireside Health Chat

County Health Commissioner
THE DANGEROUS PERIOD

There are certain age periods in which we are susceptible to certain diseases. These could be classified as dangerous periods in the life of an individual.

Of course, the first danger period lasts from birth until the age of 7 or 8 years. In this period occur many of the infectious diseases of childhood and in this age group we account for a large number of deaths.

The next zone of danger is in the 15-25 years age group. It is to this group that our attention is called at this time, for the reason that there are a number of dangerous diseases which are more prevalent here than in any other group.

The first of the dangerous diseases which we must fight against, especially at this time, is tuberculosis. The majority of the people suffering from this disease either contracted the infection during this age period, or manifested the ill effects of the diseases if it was contracted earlier in life. For protection against tuberculosis it is wise to have regular examinations. The person who has been exposed to active tuberculosis in the family or in anyone closely related should be examined often.

Also in this period is a rapid rise in deaths from heart disease, probably because at this time many children are entering into competitive athletics, or they are just beginning work, including those doing manual labor. Sometimes in this age group persons having had early heart trouble will have a breakdown at this particular period because of the increased physical activity. This tragedy often occurs among school children entering into competitive sports. It could be delayed if the person was aware of his condition and thereby able to exercise the necessary precautions.

It is easy to understand, if we take a moment to think, that there is an increase in the number of accidents occurring during this age period. It is at this time that the law of our state permits automobile driver's licenses to be issued, yet at this age we do not have the discretion of the older person in driving automobiles. Speeding and reckless driving are often great faults of youth. Other accidents occur from play that involves danger. Care and precaution against accidents must be exercised by all of us, because they do account for many deaths.

A very large percentage of venereal disease is contracted between the ages of 18 and 25 years. It is only by personal control, personal hygiene, and moral habits that venereal disease can be brought under control. Our young people must be very careful not to expose themselves to these diseases.

The friends of little Lorena Durden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Durden, will be interested to learn that she has recovered sufficiently from a recent operation for appendicitis to be removed to her home on Crescent Drive.

One of the happiest occasions ever witnessed in this section was the reunion Sunday of the Brown family, of the Stillson community. The homecoming was at Fellowship Baptist church. Howell Cone paid a tribute to the family.

A fall wedding marked by dignity and beauty was that of Miss Marion Shuptrine and Dr. John Bennett Stringfellow, of Stewart, Fla., on the evening of November 14.

FOLK DANCING
The high school girls enjoy folk dancing, which we have three times a week. We dance under the direction of Miss Meg Gunter. We feel that she is a very capable teacher.

Some of the dances we have been taught are the Dutch Couple Dance, Norwegian Mountain March, Badge Navada, Ole Dan Tucker, Children's Polka, Little Dead, Jump Jimmy Crow, and Little Man in a Fix. We learned a new dance Wednesday: Come Let Us Be Cheerful. This dance is liked by everyone.

Miss Gunter has taught us the polka step to Beer Barrel Polka, and we think that nothing can beat it. Several groups have taken the music to the same song and dance, and worked out some excellent steps to this popular tune.

LITERATURE CLASS
A few finishing their study of poetry, the senior literature class began its study of the drama and early English plays and plays.

Parts are being tried out for now to see who will play the various characters in Shakespeare's Merchant of Venice. Plans are being made as to whether or not the class shall present the play when they have worked it up.

Members of the literature class are very interested in the drama. Notebooks and prizes have been suggested and started on by members of the class. There is a possibility that this play will be presented before the entire student body after it has been worked out as it should be, to do credit to Shakespeare.

BRIDE-ELECT CENTRAL FIGURE AT LOVELY SHOWER-TEA

On Thursday afternoon, Mrs. Robert Kitchens entertained with a lovely tea at the home of Mrs. J. B. Sargent, complementing her sister, Miss Ruby Mallard, whose marriage to Don Mercer of Metter will be an event of Thanksgiving Day.

Mrs. J. B. Sargent greeted the guests upon their arrival and introduced them to the receiving line, which was composed of Mrs. Robert Kitchens, Miss Mallard, the bride-elect, Mrs. Cuyler Waters, aunt of the bride; and Mrs. Ralph Mallard of Reidsville.

The bride-elect, a lovely brunette, wore a pink tulle gown with a corsage of sweetest roses and carnations. Mrs. Kitchens received her guests in a white chiffon model. Her flowers were red roses. Mrs. Cuyler Waters wore black lace posed over black tulle, with red corsage. Mrs. Ralph Mallard's frock was of rose tulle and worn with shoulder spray of white baby chrysanthemums.

The lace-covered tea table had for its centerpiece a crystal bowl filled with giant white chrysanthemums flanked by crystal holders with slender white tapers. A color motif of white and green was adhered to in the decorations and table appointments. White chrysanthemums were used throughout the home.

Serving in the dining room were Mrs. Ralph Moore, Mrs. Caroline Daniels of Belleville; Miss Bonelle Akins and Miss Helen Nowell. The guests were served ambrosia, pound cake, black coffee, mints and nuts. Others assisting were Mrs. Russell Everett, Mrs. Pat Knight and Mrs. O. R. Nowell.

Mrs. Dan Lingo presided over the bride's register, and Mrs. Dan Lingo was in the gift room. Mrs. C. R. Cox was at the door as the guests departed.

MORNING AND AFTERNOON BRIDGE EVENTS OF TUESDAY

Mrs. C. B. Mathews and Mrs. Frank Olliff entertained at lovely morning and afternoon bridge parties Tuesday at Mrs. Mathews' home on Zetterover avenue.

Chrysanthemums in bronze hues and red roses formed a lovely background for the party.

Guests were invited for ten tables in the morning and eleven tables in the afternoon. They were served a delightful salad course.

Twenty-one tables were placed for the players and sixteen guests called for tea.

There were three progressions and a prize was given at each progression. The prize for the first progression, a scone lamp, went to Mrs. Harry Johnson; for the second progression, Mrs. C. Z. Donaldson was given a similar prize. For the third progression, Mrs. Jack Carlton won a hurricane lamp; and for top score Mrs. Herman Bland received chrysanthemums.

The Thanksgiving motif was introduced in the refreshments. Ice cream molded like the Thanksgiving bird, sandwiches, cake, salted nuts, and coffee were served the guests.

CHARLIE HOWARD COMPLIMENTED WITH BIRTHDAY DINNERS

A delightful social event of Friday evening was the surprise birthday dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Howard for their son, Charlie, at their home on South Main street.

The Thanksgiving season was reflected in the decorations and table appointments. A three-course dinner with turkey as the main course was served. The favors were miniature turkeys. Yellow and white chrysanthemums were artistically arranged throughout the home.

After dinner the guests played bridge. Prizes were won by A. J. Bowen, who received cigarettes, and Mrs. R. L. Cone, Jr., who was given pottery. Mrs. R. L. Cone, a recent bride, was also remembered by the hostess with a crystal gift matching her pattern.

Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Cone, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Billy Cone, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bowen, Mr. and Mrs. James M. Auld, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Howard, Mrs. Mamie Lou Kennedy and Miss Lola Mae Howard.

A few days ago I was amazed and incredulous. After calling No. 181 in the telephone book, a strange voice answered. "Who is this speaking?" I inquired. "This is Roosevelt," I knew that the gentleman of the house was an ardent admirer of Franklin D., but I hardly thought he'd assumed his name, so I pretended that I had misunderstood and asked again. Again I was assured I was speaking to Roosevelt—but after a brief pause the voice went on, "Eff'n' you wants to speak wid Mrs. Braswell she's at the show..."

A bright spot at the Dorman, Braswell, Kennon, and Whitehurst party Friday was Essie Mays in her red hat worn with dress with red garters. It was awfully smart looking. Minnie Brannen in a royal blue velvet dress with hat to match might easily have posed for All's Fair...

What would you do if you were a State Patrol man and after chasing a car for miles you overtook one of Statesboro's most charming matrons and as you pulled alongside she gave you the full benefit of those lovely blue eyes?

The matron, clad in a nifty suit, when asked for her license, said "It's home in a dresser drawer," and laughingly told him he'd have to come home with her. Well, he just said, "Lady, be careful..."

What young groom got all mixed up about the date for Charlie Howard's Surprise Birthday dinner and barged in a day early for dinner?

Gainesborough. Mercie Kennedy with her golden bill worn with fashionable fall costumes my attention was claimed by a bridge cover. It was white with drawn work about an inch wide. It carried black frock was very attractive, but though surrounded by ried me back to the time when every correct parlor had a center table with claw feet and was covered with the white cloth with drawn work similar to the pattern on the bridge cover. The cover in question belonged to Lillian Braswell and was made by her grandmother.

Frank Williams had a marvelous trip to Atlanta—on the train. Which is quite an adventure for a small boy these days—and as an added thrill he slept in a berth on the way up. He bought presents for "Omie" but forgot to buy his mother something.

And Dot Darby is getting married Friday evening at a church wedding. The bridesmaids from Statesboro are Gladys Thayer, Mary Sue Akins, Bobbie Smith, and Sara Remington. They are all wearing frocks designed alike of blue tulle with hoop skirts and low off-the-shoulder sweaters necklines and ribbons in their hair. Just know the wedding group will be lovely.

Bob And Betty Return To Statesboro To Live

Do you remember Bob and Betty who got married last year? Well, they've returned now with their baby and it's a perfect dear.

Of course the AUTHOR HOWARD LUMBER CO. supplied the materials for every line. You'll note the best in every line. Were selected for this poem.

GROOVER & JOHNSTON wrote INSURANCE. On their cozy little nest. GROOVER & JOHNSTON were selected. 'Cause their service is the best.

Bob and Betty save at the BULLOCH COUNTY BANK. 2 1/2% is what they pay. Other investments may look rose. But here's the safest way.

They buy all their drugs at the CITY DRUG CO. 'Cause it's their favorite drug store. They're sure of pure and safe drugs there. And they don't cost a penny more.

Bob went down to the AVERTITT BROS. AUTO CO. And bought a 1940 PONTIAC the other day. He says it beats all cars he's owned. In every single way.

They buy all their foods from the K & K GROCERY. 'Cause it's a home-owned store. This insures their getting quality. And their money buys much more.

Bob goes to WYLEY NESMITH'S SERVICE STATION. For ATLANTIC oil and ATLANTIC tires. When it comes to making cars perform. There's nothing in its class.

At MINKOVITZ DEPT. STORE Betty bought. Some lovely silk dresses and a coat for fall. See MINKOVITZ styles and prices. Their values beat them all.

The lovely GEORGIA THEATRE. Is their favorite picture show. It shows big pictures just as soon. As cities do, you know.

You will remember H. W. SMITH JEWELRY STORE. Sold Bob the wedding ring and solitaire. You should see the lovely diamonds. And other rings down there.

ALFRED DORMAN & CO. WHOLESALE GROCERY. We call to your attention. They've been serving STATESBORO and vicinity for many a year. And they're worthy of our mention.

The MUNRO STUDIO takes pictures. Of their baby every year. STATESBORO is fortunate in having. So good a studio here.

Bob has a dandy little farm. He's a successful farmer, too. He buys all his stock feed from BRADLEY & CONE. As most good farmers do.

SMITH BROS. IMPLEMENT CO. sold Bob a John Deere Tractor. At very moderate price. Once you buy farm machinery from SMITH BROS. You are sure to do it twice.

BRANNEN-THAYER make MEMORIALS. Of granite and marble, too. And at BRANNEN-THAYER's you are sure to see. Patterns that are new.

Cement burial vaults are modern. And by far the nicest way. BOB HAGAN'S BURIAL VAULT CO. is ready. To fill orders right away.

Before real cold weather comes. The UPCHURCH GARAGE will check Bob's car. Yours, too, probably has some defects. But you don't know what they are.

They always keep SUN-CREST ORANGE & NU-GRAPE. In bottles on their ice. When it comes to treating friends who call. There is nothing quite so nice.

If it is hardware you are needing. W. C. AKINS & SON HARDWARE would appreciate your trade. They'll give you lower prices. On merchandise of higher grade.

If Betty wants to entertain. At luncheon, bridge or tea. She'll do it at the attractive JAECKEL HOTEL. It is the smartest thing, you see.

There'll be a lot of wet weather soon. Better check up on your roof. Then get in touch with M. F. ALDERMAN ROOFING CO. They'll make it weather proof.

Now, Bob is a classy dresser. And always looks real swell. The THACKSTON DRY CLEANERS do his cleaning. That's why he looks so well.

THE BULLOCH LIVESTOCK CO. Deals in stock of every kind. And for fair and square dealing. It's the best place that you'll find.

Bob always goes to the WESTERN AUTO ASSOCIATE STORE. For parts for his car. The WESTERN ASSOCIATE PARTS last longer. And cost you less by far.

No noisy patent ice machine. Supplies this county's ice. They buy their ice from the CITY ICE & COAL CO. In big blocks pure and nice.

You remember the JONES FLORIST. Supplied the bride's bouquet. Other florist don't arrange their flowers. This firm's artistic way.

There is one important STATESBORO business firm. We must mention in this poem. And that's the thoroughly up-to-date. LANIER'S MORTUARY'S funeral home.

They buy choice liquors from ALTMAN'S. To serve to friends who call. They patronize ALTMAN'S LIQUOR STORE. 'Cause his prices beat them all.

Every week, once or twice. BRYN serves a meal of fish. At JONES HOTELS CO. she purchases. Just anything they wish.

No home can look its nicest. Without the proper light. Have A. J. SHELTON re-wire yours. And know that it is done right.

A RCA VICTOR RADIO at the BLITCH RADIO SHOP. Bob and Betty are going to get. Before you buy a radio. Be sure to see this set.

Bob won't get up to answer the TELEPHONE. He's an awful sleepy head. He had the STATESBORO TELEPHONE CO. put an extension. Right beside his bed.

COTTON plays an important part in building CONCRETE ROADS

ABOUT ten million pounds of cotton is used annually by the cement industry for making concrete. Heavy cotton mats are used now for curing freshly placed concrete, protecting it from the sun while hardening.

1,200,000 sq. yds. of these heavy mats have been used in the last few years. Concrete road construction offers a vast market for your cotton and besides concrete is the real low cost road, superior in durability, safety and economy.

U. S. Route 80 through Statesboro needs to be modernized and paved with concrete

STUDENT COUNCIL NEWS

The Student Council met Monday, November 20.

When the by-laws of the council went into effect the results were startling. Members were brought throwing paper on the school before the council to be tried. Throwing paper on the school grounds and in the school building seems to be the rule broken most frequently. New deputies were elected to enforce these by-laws. The team feels that even though it played a losing season it won the knowledge of being part of a great little city that can meet defeat with a smile.

The team extends special thanks to Prof. Sherman, Jake Hines, Harry Smith, The Woman's Club, P. T. A. and the Athletic Association.

"The season closed Friday night with a game with Claxton and it is hoped a large crowd will be present to see the final game."

S.H.S. Plays Claxton High Friday Night

The Statesboro High School Blue Devils will meet Claxton on the local field here Friday night, December 1.

This is the last game of the season.

In a statement made to the Bulloch Herald the members of the Blue Devil team express their thanks and appreciation for the support given them this year. The statement is as follows:

"The Statesboro High School Football Team, through its captain, Dub Lovett, desire to express their appreciation of the whole-hearted support given them by the various organizations and fans during the season which comes to a close with the Claxton game, Friday, December 1.

The fact that everyone stood squarely behind the team even though it failed to win a game, is evidence of the high class sportsmanship that our city is noted for. The team feels that even though it played a losing season it won the knowledge of being part of a great little city that can meet defeat with a smile.

OFFICE FOR 1940 CENSUS TAKER HERE

GEORGE HILL IS NAMED DISTRICT SUPERVISOR

According to an announcement made by Congressman Hugh Peterson last week, the first congressional district will be divided into two census districts, with separate census groups supervising the 1940 census taken in each district.

Statesboro has been designated as headquarters for seventeen counties in the first district which comprise one district. Chatham county and Savannah have been designated as the other district to be known as the "metropolitan area."

George M. Hill, Jr., prominent young attorney of Savannah, Screven County, and a member of the Georgia House of Representatives, has been chosen supervisor of the Statesboro district. His headquarters will be in the post office building here. The assistant supervisor for this district will be Louis S. Proctor of Swainsboro, Emanuel county.

In making these announcements Congressman Peterson said: "Office help for the respective census districts as well as the census enumerators for the various sections of the district will be named by the district supervisors. It is expected that the two census districts, both the metropolitan area and the rural counties, will be organized to the best possible advantage and the census work administered in the most efficient manner."

Congressman Peterson advises that applications for the positions as enumerators should be made direct to the supervisors. He said it is expected that the district offices will be opened early in 1940 and that the census work will be begun soon thereafter.
